

JCI awarded the China Securities Golden Bauhinia Awards – “the Highest Growth Potential Enterprises”

(23 Nov 2016 Hong Kong) JCI was honored today to receive the highest Growth Potential Enterprises in the 6th China Securities Golden Bauhinia Awards. CEO Mr. Chen Dexin entrusted Mr. Zhang Zhong, Deputy CEO and Executive Director and Mr. Wong Tak Chuen, CFO and Company Secretary attended the ceremony and received the honor on behalf of the Company.

The China Securities Golden Bauhinia Awards are organized annually by Ta Kung Pao (currently known as Ta Kung Wen Wei Media Group). This award is jointly voted by institutions, experts and investors from Mainland China and Hong Kong financial markets and is aimed at honoring outstanding companies with highest growth potential. JCI is Jinchuan Group’s flagship listed platform for overseas resources development and well-positioned to develop into an international mining company. “The Highest Growth Potential Enterprises” award is a great encouragement to JCI. The Company will actively expand its four business segments: physical mining business, new business development, international trade and related financing; in return for its shareholders and the community.
